AMUSEMENTS

Bengough, Cartoonist.

Bengough's success in Sydney was so great that the management was obliged to extend his season to twice its original length. Speaking of his first appearance, the Sydney Morning Herald says: "Bengough, cartoonist, poet, editor, reciter, singer and comedian, proved himself on Saturday night in the first-named capacity amongst the newspaper artists of the English-speaking world. This is saying much, but his work was not only rapid, but instinct with animation and character. Bengough can hold his own amongst the best of the entertainers who have from time to time visited this country. One of the events of Saturday night was his very spirited delivery of his own lines upon 'The Visit of the Yankee Squadron,' as spoken by an enthusiastic tar back again in America after being feted in Australia. This journey round the world had taught the young tar a lesson, which, in homely language, he urges upon all the nations of the earth. 'This style of war is our invention,' he cries. 'Don't get killing folk and turning cities into smoke.' Call in and see your neighbors' ports, and join with them in kindly sports, and when he wound up his account of his stay in these parts with 'The finest spot in all that cruise was the glorious land of the kangaroos,' the hall rang with applause, and Bengough was recalled again and again. He really ought to include his heart-inspired 'Yankee Squadron' verses in every program."

If he is as good at improvising as he is at everything else, he will sing of the visit of the fleet to glorious Honolulu. Australians are not easily pleased, and sometimes their criticisms are harsh, but those who have read the items in this column concerning his visit to Honolulu and his visits made to ports in the colonies will note how universally well spoken of he is. Those who know him say he can entertain better than any single person who has gone on the boards in the Dominion of Canada. That is going some. It is impossible at this writing to say whether he will be at the operahouse tonight or tomorrow afternoon and evening. At any time the house should be crowded, and the wise ones should get their seats this morning so as to be sure of a good place. The operahouse will open at the usual time, and the entertainer will begin at eight o'clock.

Great Success.

Twice during Saturday night the sale of tickets at the Park Theater was stopped on account of the crowded condition of the theater. Manager Congdon preferred to have his patrons satisfied and comfortable than have them forced to positions where they were unable to see. The Vienna orchestra was in attendance, and all of the acts passed off satisfactorily to the audience. Tonight the Vernes will introduce their famous waltz step and the Melotte sisters will sing new songs.

Dance Tonight.

There will be better music than ever at the meeting of the Waverley Dance Club tonight. Manager Nainoa has arranged to give his patrons greater satisfaction than ever in this respect. The Waverley is growing in popularity, and the place is so crowded at times that a suggestion is made that a partition be taken out of the hall so the crowd may be better accommodated. It speaks well for the management of the place that instead of the attendance falling off it grows larger.

Band Concert.

The Hawaiian band will give a public concert this evening at Emma Square at 7:30. The program will be as follows:

March—United Flag ..... Gabriel
Overture—William Tell ..... Rossini
Intermezzo—Amina ..... Linke
Selection—Harry Lauder's ..... Hume
Vocal—Hawaiian Songs, Ar. by Berger
Selection—The Fair Co-Eds ..... Luders
Waltz—Les Syrens ..... Waldteufel
Finale—A Good Kiss ..... Coote
Good Save the King
The Star Spangled Banner.

WHAT THE PEOPLE
OF MAUI ARE DOING

Veterinary Victor A. Norgaard visited Wailuku Wednesday.

Mrs. Dunn has returned from Kohala looking well after spending two or three weeks visiting her sister, Mrs. Crozier.

Mr. T. D. Skinner has succeeded Mr. Ferd. Hons as manager of the merchandise department of the Kahului Railroad Company.

During the term all but two persons accused of crimes plead guilty. One nol. pros. was entered and one was tried and acquitted.

Mr. Patrick Cockett of Waikapu is building a beautiful new house, which will be one of the most commodious houses on Maui. It is built with excellent taste.

Superintendent of Public Works Marston Campbell was a Maui caller this week. He came up Saturday, went into the Kahului wharf proposition and the Kula pipeline matter and returned to Honolulu.

Wednesday being the Mikado's birthday it was one of the greatest gala days among the Japanese ever known in Lahaina. The Japanese displayed the American flag very much amongst their own bunting.

Maui News.—Paul J. Bell, formerly of Kihiti but more recently of Fornosa, came up to Maui Saturday and will spend a short vacation here before returning to Fornosa. Mr. Bell has many friends on Maui.

Mrs. Howell, mother of County Engineer Howell, returned to her home in

Asti Wines Again in the Lead

Seattle, Wash., Sept. 21, 1909.

The official list of awards, just published by the Alaska-Yukon Exposition, shows that the ITALIAN-SWISS COLONY has received the highest award for their California Wines.

They have received the only Grand Prize awarded on California Sparkling Wines for their ASTI SPECIAL DRY, and, in addition to this, the ITALIAN-SWISS COLONY has also received twenty (20) Gold Medals for the following varieties: TIPO, red and white; Sparkling Burgundy, Burgundy, Chablis, Claret, Port, Zinfandel, Haut Sauterne, Muscat, Madeira, Riesling, Sauterne, Tokay, Cabernet, Sherry, Angelica; Grape Brandy; Isco Grape Juice, white; Isco Grape Juice, red.

California Friday. She has been visiting her son for several months. Miss Ethel Howell, her granddaughter, accompanied her on her return.

Last Friday, October 29, the teachers of Wailuku and Makawao districts held an all day session at the new Paia School—the first event of the kind to take place within that handsome building. There were forty or more present from different parts of central Maui.

The October term of court has been a record breaker in the speed with which the grand jurymen completed their labors and returned to their respective homes and in the matter of pleas of guilty and finally in the minimum number of trials.

On Saturday, October 30, the home of Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Lindsay of Paia, Maui, was the scene of a very delightful event, it being the birthday anniversary of Mrs. Charles Loveland. Some of the friends she had known for many years were present, from different parts of Maui.

PRESIDENT'S MAIL IS CHEWED BY POSSUM

LEESVILLE, Va., October 22.—A short time ago a party of young people of this city went on an old-fashioned possum hunt, capturing several of the animals. Some time during the same night someone placed a possum in the package apartment of the postoffice and addressed it to President Taft. It was found next morning by the postmaster after the animal had chewed up and destroyed all the mail in the box. The matter was reported to the postal authorities, and what was started as a practical joke may result in serious trouble to the perpetrators.
